

Title of Thesis	Study of financial management of young working adult in Miri, Sarawak
Name	Andrew SiaKeeKiong
Program	BBA (Hons) Finance (In collaborations with Twintech International University College of Technology, KL)
Date of Submission	June 2013

ABSTRACT

The retention of financial management has been shown to be momentous to the planning and manage of money. The primary aim of this study is to explore the main factors that young working adult in the state of Sarawak, Miri. 50 surveys distributed as a sample. The survey questions designed to four steps of personal finance planning, finance, management, financial learning and financial investment.