

Title of Thesis	A Study of Factors Influencing Career Choices among Students in IBS College Miri
Name	Alisah Eno Usat
Program	BA (Hons) Business Administration (In collaborations with UCSI)
Date of Submission	August 2021
Student Thesis Code	2021/AUG/UCSI/BABA/02

ABSTRACT

Nowadays, making a career choices is very important for young students as this require them to consider several factors before making a right decision. Even so, it is important to choose the right career to ensure that students lead fulfilling lives, are motivated in their jobs and can achieve excellent productivity, thereby setting the stage for organizational success and sustainability. This study presents research analysis in the field of factors influencing students in IBS College Miri when choosing their career. The 4 main factors that influence students to choose their career are the family, the college, the peers and the salary and benefits. The objectives of this research study were to determine what factors affect students in IBS College Miri in choosing their career path. A questionnaire was developed to examine and attributes that may have influenced students when choosing a career path. The questionnaire was completed by 70 students from IBS College Miri.