

Title of Thesis	A Study on Online Gaming Behaviour among College Student in IBS College
Name	Tiong Ing Kong
Program	BBA (Hons) International Business (In collaborations with Twintech International University College of Technology, Kuala Lumpur)
Date of Submission	December 2020
Student Thesis Code	2020/DEC/TIUCT/BBAIB/05

ABSTRACT

The aim of the study is to know about a study on online gaming behavior among college students in IBS College, Miri. The main focus is to justify how excessive game would influence the online gaming behavior, whereby four research question that has proposed. The youngsters' dependency of computer is getting higher due to the current technology advance in the world. Also the admiration to the current trend or influencer is more attractive than before. Therefore, many youngster spend plenty time on their game to be updated to the current trend in order not updated to the society. For the theoretical part, the researcher reviewed through the books, journals and articles whereas the research is done through distribution of questionnaire. After completed the questionnaire, researcher will collect the questionnaire personally from the respondent who have completed the survey questionnaire. The research is using questionnaire method and gathers information from 50 respondents. Researcher focuses on college students for around 18 to 25 years old from IBS College Miri. The researcher will collect the questionnaire personally from the respondent who have completed the survey questionnaire.